

What's Happening at Douthat State Park?

Saturday - May 5, 2007

10:30 AM to 5:00 PM – Girl Scout Day at Douthat: If you are a Girl Scout, this is the event for you! Activities for the day will include Civilian Conservation Corps History Demonstration, Owl Kapers, Owl Pellet Adventure, A Stroll in Nature, Going In-Seine, Frontier Games, Pastimes and Magic of Douthat. All programs correlate to Try-Its, Badges and Interest Projects and scouts will also earn a participation patch for the day. Registration is required. $5

11:00 AM – Stroll in Nature: Join us at the Discovery Center and take a stroll up one of our trails to see what spring wildflowers might be blooming and learn a little about the natural history of Douthat State Park.

7:00 PM – Campfire: Want to get to know your fellow campers a little better and learn some interesting tidbits about Douthat State Park? Come to the amphitheater for S'mores, stories, songs and lots of fun.

Many of Douthat's activities will meet at the Discovery Center. To get there: turn onto the gravel road towards Camp Carson Shelter, continue past the children's fishing area, across the low water bridge and park in the parking area. The Discovery Center is the shelter on the left. For more information, call the park at 540-862-8100 or email douthatinterpreter@dcr.virginia.gov.
